Coalition Cabinet Shipwrecked Less Than Month
After Its Formation

SOLDIERS ESTABLISH A NEW "CAPITAL"

Germans Launch Offensive Against French, With Crown Prince Directing

(International News Service.)

Copenhagen, June 2.—Within less than a month of its formation, a split has occurred in the Russian coalition government.
A dispatch today said that other resignations were feared following the retirement of A. I. Konovoff as minister of trade and commerce. M. Konovoff resigned because of differences of opinion with the minister of labor, M. Skovloff. But equal in importance with this information is the news that the council of Workmen's and Soldiers' delegates have taken over control of Kronstadt, the great fortress which defends Petrograd.

Advices from Petrograd convey the hint that the council will establish a "capital" at Kronstadt. A branch of the council will be maintained at Petrograd for the purpose of communicating with the republican government.

Bank Street Business Man To Invest All Profits Made During War In Helping To Finance It

A prominent business man of Bank street, Decatur, has announced his intention of using every dollar cleared by him in his business while the war lasts, to buy war bonds. This man, who declined to have his name used, is one of the most successful business men in the Twin Cities.

"I am too old to go to the trenches myself," said this gentleman, when interviewed by a reporter, "but I want to do my bit. Every dollar I clear while this war lasts will go to help finance it."
The Daily claims this to be the biggest sacrifice to be made by any local business man and regrets that his name cannot be given.

REGISTRATION DAY MEN CAN'T ENLIST TO PASS QUIETLY AFTER ARE DRAFTED IN THIS COUNTY IS OFFICIAL WORD

INDICATIONS ARE THAT NO TROUBLE WILL OCCUR AND RESPONSE WILL BE GENERAL

The authorities in charge of registration in this county do not anticipate any trouble on registration day, June 5, according to information given out at the sheriff's office today. The officers state they have no reason to believe trouble of any kind will arise. No talk against registration has been heard in the Twin Cities, and it is believed that everything will go off smoothly.

It is believed, however, that a few may try to evade registration. There is a report that some of the men in the remoter parts of the county have declared they would not register. It is also said that many of the negroes, while not considering openly resisting the registration laws, will be conspicuous by their absence at the place of registration on June 5.

Sheriff Forman has the registration well in hand. He has gone over the population of the county thoroughly and knows about how many men should register. According to his estimate, Morgan county should register 2,200 men.

As soon as the registration cards have been returned to the sheriff and the lists checked, the prosecution of those failing to register will begin.

FRANCE FROWNS ON "PEACE" MEETING

SOCIALISTS SENT OUT BY KAISER ARE REBUFFED BY THE ALLIES.

(International News Service.)

London, June 2.—Greater importance is now being attached to the international socialist peace conference in Stockholm than ever before.

Events of the past 24 hours have brought it prominently before public attention. The action of the French government in refusing passports to French socialists was a severe blow to those supporting the conference, and it is evident that the view of the French government is identical to that of the American government.

The socialists are awaiting with keen curiosity to see if other governments take a similar step.

MANY ARRESTS ARE MADE

SECRET SERVICE MEN CONTINUE TO ROUND UP CONSPIRATORS
WHO MAKE DRAFT ABORTIVE.

(International News Service.)

Washington, June 2.—The United States will have a complete registration of its "war strength" as authorized by the selective conscription act next Tuesday, despite all efforts to prevent it. Never before in the history of the nation has such sweeping arrangements been made to meet an emergency. Every possible precaution has been taken, and while it is considered certain that there will be disturbances in some sections, the reports reaching the attorney general today indicated that they will be hardly more than could be expected at a general election.

A good part of the plans that have been made to "muzzle" anti-draft advocates and to meet the emergencies are of a character that will not be disclosed. They are for the most part precautionary, but if needed they will prove most effective.

One of the encouraging developments today was the announcement that patriotic citizens in all parts of the country are organizing vigilance committees to aid in enforcement of registration laws and keep down all pro-German efforts to defeat it.

These citizens are to have the complete co-operation of the municipal, county and federal authorities. From every quarter the attorney general today was receiving offers of assistance. The various state results are expected to be compiled by state committees and then telegraphed to Washington. Officials say they do not believe that they will get the totals much before the end of next week.

Leader of Religious Sect Arrested For Trying to Block Registration

Nashville Man Charged With Encouraging "Conscientious
Objectors" to Claim Exemption From Military Service

Nashville, Tenn., June 2.—In the arrest here of Dr. J. H. Grable, religious propagandist, federal authorities, assisted by the local secret service division, have unearthed a scheme for the evasion of the selective draft law that may be nation-wide in its ramifications. Dr. Grable was arrested on the charge of offering immunity to men between the draft ages through a plan that would make them appear as "conscientious objectors" to all forms of warfare, and thereby aiding in evading the provisions of the act.

This immunity was to be afforded to those subscribing to Dr. Grable's plans by placing them in the position of bona fide members of a certain religious order, notorious for its radical beliefs. Their membership, according to Dr. Grable's scheme, would have made them seem to have been members of this order before the selective

MORGAN COUNTY SHOULD HAVE FULL REGISTRATION.

On next Tuesday, in obedience to the proclamation of President Wilson, the male citizens of Morgan county between the ages of 21 and 31 years, will go to the respective voting places and register for possible military service. The draft law is strict in its provisions, and imposes heavy penalties upon those guilty of its violation. For this reason, and for the better one that it is every man's duty to observe the law of the land, there should be no slacking and no attempts at evasion. Let Morgan county measure up to its fullest responsibility, Tuesday as in the past, and show that the indomitable spirit of its forefathers lives in the men of today.

The difficulties in enforcing a full registration of negroes are apparent. This being true, the action of the Negro Civic League of Albany-Decatur in appealing to the pastors of the local negro churches to instruct and admonish their hearers on Sunday is wise and timely. If the advice given from these pulpits is observed, there is no doubt but that many negro citizens, badly needed in the fields and the shops and elsewhere will be saved from prison sentences. It is the duty of the white men of the county, also, to explain the provisions of the registration law to the negroes, many of whom are necessarily ignorant of its purpose or terms. There are numbers of whites too, who have not been fully advised as to what is expected of them, and these should be warned and instructed.

In every precinct of the county the leaders of both races should exert their influence in favor of the fullest and strictest compliance with the law.

THE LEDGER'S ENTERPRISE.

The Daily is always glad to note progress in Alabama journalism. It believes that Alabama is entitled to as good newspapers as are published in any state in the union, and it realizes that the development of the state will be coincident with the development of its press. For this reason the enterprise of the Birmingham Ledger in installing two big day-leased wire news services deserves special commendation, indicating as it does that Birmingham is far on the road to becoming the journalistic center of the South. In addition to the International News Service, which the Daily believes to be the peer of any news gathering organization in the world, the Ledger has installed the United Press, which also has behind it a record of honorable achievement and a liberal number of "scoops." Armed with the dual service, the Ledger is in position to give its readers accurate and early accounts of world happenings. At this time, when history is being made so rapidly that the historians of the future will always trail under a handicap, the value of extraordinarily good wire connections is inestimable.

An offshoot of the Birmingham News, the Ledger under the management of J. J. Smith, Robert Hiden, Richard Johnson and other live newspaper men, has climbed into fullest recognition as an able metropolitan journal that is playing well its part. Its growth, progress and enterprise are observed by its contemporaries with genuine satisfaction.

Register early and avoid the rush.

NEWSPAPERS AND WAR.

Every day hundreds of newspapers devote columns of news matter and editorial comment to the national needs and national welfare work. When a newspaper gives away its space it gives away something which costs it real money. It is giving today a much greater percentage of its energy and resources than in any other industry or business in America. Without publicity Secretary McAdoo would find the liberty loan a dismal failure.

At this juncture in the nation's life no other single agency in our republic is more solidly united for its welfare than the newspapers. No other agency compares with it in the mighty task of solidifying public sentiment behind the president and the flag.

At such a time and in such a crisis it rises to the magnitude of a crime for any congressman to talk of harassing the publishers with onerous postal rates that are in no way a war tax. To strike down the very thing which is our country's strongest weapon in fighting freedom's war would require a degree of insanity which we cannot believe exists even in Washington—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Announcement by the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railway company that it will erect a $425,000 hospital for its employes at Flint Ridge is pretty conclusive evidence that Alabama has at least a few industries that can attract national attention.

The condition of the cotton crop, as shown by the government report, is such that any planter can go ahead and grow all of the staple possible with the full assurance that he will receive a big price for his product.

By killing the censorship bill, congress further safeguarded American freedom. So long as a fearless press is allowed to lift its voice in protest against abuses, the danger of these is minimized.

Many men can never fight in the trenches. Most any man can buy a Liberty Bond.

It is better to be a soldier than a felon, so don't fail to register on June 5.

DOG IS WAR HERO

Saves Young French Soldier Left on the Field for Dead.

Animal Refuses to Leave Side of His Friend and Drags Wounded Youth to Safety.

Michael was larger, stronger and more intelligent than the other dogs attached to a certain division of the French army and he was a general favorite among the soldiers. Michael, although most "sociable," centered his particular affections upon a young French soldier named Henri. Every day at the soup hour Michael would appear carrying a tin can and place it beside Henri, who would fill it as he did his own, and they would dine together.

The day came, however, when Henri failed to return, and as the men stumbled back again to safety Michael scanned, with anxious eyes, every pale, haggard face, his sensitive nostrils quivering with dread.

When the last man had been accounted for and Henri was still missing the animal darted toward the battlefield and after some time returned, greatly excited, and carrying an old half-glove which belonged to his friend. He could scarcely wait for the attendants to bring a litter before he started off again, his great, intelligent eyes imploring them to hurry.

In a remote part of the field they found the young fellow lying still and cold. After a hasty examination the attendants left him for dead, hurrying away to succor the living, but Michael refused to be convinced. Again and again he returned for assistance, according to our dumb animals, but in vain, so he mounted his solitary guard, his face almost humanly expressive of grief.

The attack took place about sundown, and it was not until late that night that comparative quiet settled down upon the trenches.

Suddenly the moon flashed out from behind a cloud, and the alert sentinel peered sharply about, then brought his rifle swiftly to his shoulder.

Not 20 feet away, creeping slowly toward the trenches, but halting abruptly every minute, loomed a large, dark object. The sentry advanced cautiously, finger on trigger, demanded curtly, "Who goes there?" followed by the stifled exclamation, "Michael!" Michael it was, gasping, panting, but still the same old dog Michael—but not alone. Behind him, parts of his uniform literally torn away by the dog's teeth, lay Henri, dragged from the battlefield, inch by inch, by the devoted animal. And miracle of miracles, the boy was actually breathing.

How the animal had accomplished such a difficult task and escaped the vigilant eyes of the field attendants will forever remain a mystery, but little, fragile-looking Henri ultimately recovered.

If you need a clerk, salesman, stenographer or any kind of help, the quickest way is a Daily want ad.

Curtail Southern Passenger Service

Two State Commissions Have Already Consented to Such Action.

Announcement from its main offices that the Southern Railway has been granted permission by the state railroad commissions of South Carolina and Tennessee to curtail its passenger train service as a necessary war measure, is taken here to mean that similar action may also be taken by the Alabama public service commission, and that some of the trains now operating on this division may be discontinued. The accommodation trains will probably be the ones lapped off, in the event that fewer passenger trains are run.

A THOUGHT FOR THE SABBATH AND EVERY OTHER DAY.

BY OBSERVER.

The merits of our selective draft rest not alone on its practicality, its fairness and its democracy, but they also appear from the very nature of human beings.

For example—Man is not exactly a volunteer for work (duty drafts him) or for a great many of the other things that he does that are very necessary.

Take man's religion, which, conceive it but liberally enough, includes the whole man. In it man is not a volunteer, so much as he is a "called one," or a conscript. "Except ye be called," etc., the Book says. And Christ said to the twelve: "Ye have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you."

Man is not the author of his own salvation, nor of his religious status; neither, since the individual must serve the community, can he be allowed to say wholly what his duty is, as the community must be consulted as to its needs.

In business, business interests must decide what the individual must do. "Kike," in the "Circuit Rider," said that "the work was everything, the man nothing."

Such fundamental considerations as these kept President Wilson firm for the selective draft when the high tides of volunteerism arose—and still kept him firm when the gallant Roosevelt sought to lead an army of volunteers to France.

To use a homely illustration: Whoever attended an old-fashioned barn raising back in the country knows that what work was done was done by the few and that the most of the volunteers took things easy and all went home early.

The philosophy that governed the "barn raisers" was: "We volunteered to help, so also we can volunteer to quit about when we please."

Five hundred thousand volunteer soldiers deserted during the civil war. They said to themselves: "We volunteered in and by the eternal we can volunteer out again."

But why multiply words? Why not quit by giving the testimony of David De Armond, congressman for a long time from Missouri, and who died as brave a death as comes to man. He died as he was fighting the flames off his little grandson. But De Armond said, and his words were recognized as true by the great audience that heard him, that "man needs the spur of necessity."

Finally, volunteering is all right as far as it goes, but it doesn't go far enough and never has. It stirs the adventurous nature alright, but it does not take hold of a man and tell him his duty and then have him do it.

"A FOOL AND HIS MONEY—"

The World Is Better Off When They Are Parted and the Cash Is in Pockets of a Wise Man.

A fool and his money are soon parted. That's right.
The best thing that can happen to a fool's money is to get in the pockets of a wise man. So don't shed tears, dear reader, when you hear that a Pennsylvania man "blows in" $15,000 in one day or spends $1,000 for a few extra suits of clothes, says Girard in the Philadelphia Ledger.

When a spendthrift eats $8 worth of terrapin and calls for more the money doesn't go down his throat. Bless you, no; because it goes to the hotel man, who scatters those 800 cents to the four winds.

I hear the thoughtless sigh when they read about somebody's giving a monkey dinner at Newport. But I ask you if getting rid of his money as fast as possible is not the very best thing which a monkey-dinner promoter could do with it?

When a man or woman has not the sense to spend money wisely, why, the sooner and faster it goes the better for the rest of the world.

The worst thing anybody can do with money is to lock it up. Wise ones make their cash work harder than any slave toiled on a cotton plantation.

Even a slave had time to sleep, but a sensible man, no matter whether he have ten or ten million dollars, keeps it on the treadmill all day and all night and every day of the year.

Hence your spendthrift when he orders $500 worth of wine for a dinner, plus $1,000 worth of flowers, and hands the waiters a $50 bill for a tip, is doing what? Merely transferring his cash from one treadmill where it is not needed to a score of different mills where it is needed.

So instead of reviling these lavish sounds say to them "God bless you."

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hisson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was," says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place, "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble. I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic."

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

He Loved Marie.

A sailor at the Seaman's Church Institute, just in from Cuba, came rattling down the stairs the other day with a heavy scowl on his face. He approached the institute interpreter and threw down this letter addressed to a young woman he had met during the trip: "Dear Marie: The more I think of you the worse I love you. I see my sister and she says she will teach you English in two weeks if you cum here. Marie, I love you awful and send you $50 for you to cum here. I see your brother and he is wrighting to you this minute. When I send a girl $50 for anything I'm crazy. As ever, Oscar." "Well," said the interpreter, "Make that just like it is, only in Spanish," explained Oscar, "and charge everything to me. I'll be right upstairs until I get married."—New York Correspondence in Pittsburgh Dispatch.

CONFEREES AGREE ON WAR MEASURE

(International News Service.)

Washington, June 2.—By compromising their differences over the $750,000,000 shipping provision, the conferees on the $3,340,000,000 army and navy budget reached a complete agreement this afternoon.

The shipping section will be rewritten, but the idea of the senate provision conferring dictatorial ship building powers on the president will be largely restrained.

The senate conferees yielded the provision appropriating $10,000,000 to be used as an emergency fund by the secretary of war.

The report will be made in both houses next week.

Universal Enrollment the Democratic Method of Service

By ANSON PHELPS STOKES,
Secretary of Yale University

I AM among those who have doubted the necessity or advisability of compulsory military service for this country in ordinary times, but I am clear that no other policy is adequate now that we are at war to help make the world "SAFE FOR DEMOCRACY," TO QUOTE PRESIDENT WILSON'S FINE PHRASE.

When a free nation led by its president and supported by an overwhelming majority of fairly chosen representatives in both houses of congress has deliberately decided upon using its military forces to prevent the triumph of armed political reaction and ruthlessness, SELECTIVE CONSCRIPTION, WITH PROPER EXEMPTIONS, IS THE MOST DEMOCRATIC, EFFICIENT AND SPEEDY METHOD OF SECURING RESULTS.

Whatever the future, compulsory service during the war will be effective from a military standpoint and of educational value in helping us to determine its strong and weak points as a permanent policy.

AMUSEMENTS

"ENLIGHTEN THY DAUGHTER"

AT THE MASONIC TODAY.

There is a treat and a lesson for lovers of the silent drama in "Enlighten Thy Daughter," which is being shown at the Masonic today. The photodrama, which is a seven-reel presentation of a subject of vital importance to every parent, was written and directed by Ivan Abramson, and is the most important production so far produced by the Ivan concern.

It shows the tremendous evil resulting from keeping growing girls in ignorance of some of the greatest facts of life, and drives home with irresistible force the great truth that to "Enlighten Thy Daughter" is one of the most important things a parent can do. The cast was chosen with an eye single to the dramatic requirements of the various parts, and is one of the most complete and well balanced aggregations of screen talent ever gathered together.

The theme of the play, told in the title, is presented in a manner which cannot fail to carry conviction, and the whole production, strikingly different from the ordinary so-called "features" is an achievement which has called for unstinted praise from both the trade and secular press, as well as the thousands who crowded the Park theatre, New York, during its four weeks stay at that metropolitan playhouse.

The Most Remarkable Dramatic Spectacle Ever Shown On Any Screen—The 7 Act Cinema Thunderbolt

"ENLIGHTEN THY DAUGHTER"

No Feature, Regardless of cost, compares with this production as an attraction.

39,217 paid admissions in 7 days at Park theatre.

At the National Board of Review meeting held in New York on January 24th "ENLIGHTEN THY DAUGHTER" was selected as the most fitting subject with which to demonstrate how a powerful drama, absorbing plot, gigantic theme and subject of tremendous importance can be handled in a manner that, while it treats the subject in hand in a definite, rugged manner, is yet so constructed as to receive unanimous approval of every class. Powerful yet Clean—Absorbing yet Subtle. It deals a terrific blow at our greatest human frailty—the allowing of our daughters to grow up in utter ignorance of the world's pitfalls yet it is the most entertaining film production Broadway has ever seen.

"It is positively the most heart gripping, pulse moving, dramatic spectacle that could be crowded on the screen in the two hours required to show it," says William R. Hearst's N. Y. American.

Matinee 2:30 p. m., Night 7:30.

Admission, 25c to All.

BERNHARDT'S CHATEAU IS SPARED

This pretty little chateau belongs to Sarah Bernhardt, the famous French actress, who has not seen it since the beginning of the war. It is now held by the Germans and this picture was made recently showing that until then, at least, the Germans had spared the charming little place.

Negro Wanted For Falkville Robbery Escapes From Jail

Will Jackson, the negro arrested in Birmingham yesterday morning, charged with robbing M. F. Patterson's store at Falkville late Thursday night, escaped from the Birmingham city jail yesterday and has not yet been recaptured.

The negro was arrested in Birmingham yesterday morning and placed in the city jail, charged with the robbery. Two suitcases of merchandise and a Winchester rifle were in his possession when captured. Sheriff Forman was notified and left yesterday afternoon for his prisoner. When the sheriff arrived in Birmingham the negro and the stolen property were missing.

No one seems to know just how the negro escaped. Several men were tried yesterday morning in the Birmingham police court on charges of being drunk and it is thought that Jackson entered the court room with other prisoners charged with minor offenses and pleaded guilty to some small charge, paid his fine and escaped without being recognized.

Brass Cap Caused Death of Nurses

(International News Service.)

Washington, June 2.—According to evidence produced today by Secretary Daniels, the accident on the liner Mongolia that killed two Red Cross nurses en route to the battle front, was not due to carelessness or neglect of navy officers, but was caused by the inexplicable rebound of the brass cap of a cartridge case. Secretary Daniels exhibited a blood-stained and battered piece of brass cap which he said was taken from the heart of one of the nurses.

Albany Police Put Ban On Speeding

The Albany city authorities have begun a campaign to stop speeding in the city limits. One man was arrested last night on this charge and fined this morning in police court. The mayor and police say they are determined that the fast driving of automobiles shall stop and say they will use every effort to break up the practice.

On Saturday nights and Sundays some of these speeders take advantage of some of the well-paved streets of Albany and proceed to "open her up." In the future these streets will be closely watched and some of these joy riders are likely to have their ardor considerably dampened when asked to appear in police court.

Dignity and Impudence.

A trawler one evening came into a port where lay at anchor a destroyer flotilla. She dropped her "hook" foul of the first and second ships and the efforts of the officer of the watch on the leading ship to move her were fruitless.

On the matter being reported to the commodore he went aft and hailed the intruder.

"Hullo, there. You're foul of my billet, and you must clear out and anchor elsewhere. I'm in command of this flotilla—who are you?"

"Back came the answer, appealing in its audacity and disregard of service convention:

"Ah'm the Star o' Bethlehem—and Ah've set fo' th' night."—London Opinion.

LATEST NEWS FROM WASHINGTON INDICATES CONTROLLING POWERS LOOKING TO MUSCLE SHOALS.

(Florence Times.)

Those who are carefully watching the course of events at Washington, concerning the location of the great government nitrate plant, are highly encouraged by the condition of affairs as they at present appear. They believe the situation is more promising now than ever before. They believe that the men in authority have become more and more convinced that the Muscle Shoals is the place for the location of the plant. The process of elimination has been completed, and no other point in the United States combines so many convincing claims.

The leading reasons for this faith in the Muscle Shoals is the open confession in high quarters that the government must provide for munitions of war, and that the Chilean supply is more precarious; and that the necessity for supplying the country with fertilizers, at a price the farmers can pay, has become, in fact, a military necessity. These two points have been conclusive. They are important, and these facts have become daily clearer to the official mind at headquarters.

And this is not all we could say. But we shall have to wait further developments which we firmly believe will be of greatest interest to Florence and all the people of the Tennessee valley, the state of Alabama, and the entire country.
